free special events schedule

FALL GROUP ART SHOW AT THE PIER SPECIAL EVENTS START AT 3PM UNLESS OTHERWISE NOTED

	1
25 September Saturday		Richard Bennett (piano and compositions) is joined by Naren Budhakar (tabla), Arun Ramamurthy (carnatic violin) and Gaku Takanashi (bass) as they play original explorations of ragas and blues forms and moods. from New Delhi to New Orleans, new connections will be forged and ancient truths unearthed.
26 September Sunday		Gallery Talk by BMA docent and BWAC member Fortunata Schiano, LINEAGE AT THE BROOKLYN MUSEUM: works from some of the most important collections at the Brooklyn Museum and the story of those directors and curators who had the daring and foresight to acquire them for the museum. 1:30PM.
2 October Saturday		Transmissions A series of multi media pieces, visual and auditory works around every tone in the chromatic scale, conceived and executed during the appropriate phase of the Zodiac cycle. Live performance improvised by Christopher Bruno and STRNGLV of Sophomore. Peacock.
3 October Sunday		The delimagazine.com has named him a NYC artist on the rise, singer/songwriter Greg Thomas ' roots are in Indie Rock, Pop and Folk. He's just released a new EP called Atlantic/Pacific.
9 October Saturday		Transmissions A series of multi media pieces, visual and auditory works around every tone in the chromatic scale, conceived and executed during the appropriate phase of the Zodiac cycle. Live performance improvised by Christopher Bruno and STRNGLV of Sophomore. Peacock.

10 October Sunday	REPORT OF CHARLES AND	The music of Red Orange Morning is intense, beautiful, heart-breaking, sad, fun, angry, joyous, and infectious. It is everything all at once. The smooth, unpredictable harmonies of Ryan Hampton and Cyndi Ramirez become as distinctive together as they are standing alone.
16 October Saturday	RED HOOK INTERNATIONAL FILM AND VIDEO FESTIVAL	The 2010 Red Hook Film Festival, curated by Nathan Kensinger, is a showcase of outstanding short films from around the world.
		Transmissions A series of multi media pieces, visual and auditory works around every tone in the chromatic scale, conceived and executed during the appropriate phase of the Zodiac cycle. Live performance improvised by Christopher Bruno and STRNGLV of Sophomore. Peacock.
17 October Sunday	the binary marketing show	On their MySpace page, Abram Morphew and Bethany Carder, aka The Binary Marketing Show , say their music sounds like "life underwater nearing a volcanic explosion". Come listen as they play music from their new EP, Mirrors Reflect Light .
23 October Saturday		Transmissions A series of multi media pieces, visual and auditory works around every tone in the chromatic scale, conceived and executed during the appropriate phase of the Zodiac cycle. Live performance improvised by Christopher Bruno and STRNGLV of Sophomore. Peacock.
24 October Sunday		Nuyorican Poetry Reading: Nancy Mercado and Myran Neives read their poems about the Puerto Rican experience in New York.
		Eclectic in every way, Brooklyn's Jigsaw Soul makes music that draws on a wide array of influences. Their music is an eclectic set of rhythmic styles, propelled by a deep undulating groove and layers of atmosphere.

30 October Saturday	Transmissions A series of multi media pieces, visual and auditory works around every tone in the chromatic scale, conceived and executed during the appropriate phase of the Zodiac cycle. Live performance improvised be Christopher Bruno and STRNGLV of Sophomore. Peacock.
October 31 Sunday	Free Range is an evolutionary fantasy that projects the human "story" into a foreboding future. Wearing gas masks that have been transformed into whimsical and opulent, post-apocalyptic animals, nine performers, directed by Cori Kresge, navigate an evolving landscape created by visual artist Sarah Olson. 2PM
	Wayne Tucker is a 22 year old trumpet player, composer, and arrange from Syracuse, NY. He has played with many of today's current jazz stars, including Bob Mintzer, Delfayo Marsalis, Ryan Kisor and many more. http://www.myspace.com/waynetucker7