

2011 PERFORMANCE CALENDAR

CONVERGENCE in Red Hook

Thur, May 5
Cinco de Mayo
Preview
Party/Fundraiser
6:30 – 9:00PM

Red Hook Ramblers

a New Orleans-style hot jazz band, coming straight out of Brooklyn that conjures a delicious speakeasy vibe!

Frank Hoier

singing about pretty girls and howling hounds, his worries and his sweetheart

Smitty & Co

reinterpreting the Mississippi experience from a New York perspective.....

Sat, May 7
Meet the Artists
Opening Day Reception
1-6PM

Scott Fagan and The MAAC Island Band

self-described as a band with swagger - they promise to “tear things up.”

Sun, May 8

Wayne Tucker

soulful trumpeting and vocals, steeped in virtually every tradition and derivation of jazz and R&B

Sun, May 15

Red Orange Morning

their music is moody, sad, angry, passionate, and intense - the end result is a rhythmic and melodic collage.

Between sets, poet Maria Gregorio featured in numerous venues including The New School University and the Cornelia Street Café will be performing some of her poems.

Sun, May 22

Melody Sky

born on the Brooklyn waterfront, the candlelit studios of New Jersey and the rooftops of Mumbai, Melody Sky celebrates the global garden.

Sun, May 29

Boom Chick

an adorable, danceable, surfy bluesy garage rock duo with a raw, gutsy sound

Sun, Jun 5

Jon Braman

“father of ukulele hip hop”

Sat and Sun
Jun 11/12

tons of great bands from numerous traditions and a great diversity of styles - old-time music, blues, pre-blues, African music, blue-grass, author-vocalists and more
TICKETS AT THE DOOR