

'scapes

Schedule of Special Events

Saturday
July 27

Meet the Artists Opening reception with the soulful trumpeting and a versatile musical palette of BWAC favorite, the Wayne Tucker Quartet. 2-5PM

Sunday
July 28

Spaghetti Eastern music - the ambient instrumentals and acoustic offerings of guitarist/keyboardist, Sal Cataldi. Called "truly excellent" by The Village Voice, and "triumphantly funkified" by UPI, 1PM

The wonderful songs and strong melodies of singer/songwriter/pianist, Clare Cooper, 3PM.

Sunday
August 4

Braxton Hicks, pianist, stylizing the great standards, doing some Ray Charles blues and other tasty ditties. 3PM

Sunday
August 11

Janet Rothholz, long-time BWAC member, will lead a tour through the two floors of our exhibit space. Other artists will join her as she takes you through the gallery discussing the different styles, techniques, disciplines. 2PM

Folk/pop composer and lyricist, Dave Hall sings, including Come to Brooklyn, dubbed Brooklyn's unofficial anthem. 3PM

Sunday
August 18

David Kruse aka Johnny Guitar is a trained classical guitarist and trail blazing pioneer of the downtempo electronic musical genre known as Trip Hop. His songs are stories woven from the fabric of his life.

Put in a winning bid at the Silent Affordable Auction (where bids start as low as $30). BWAC shows have been cited by Crains NY Business and Smart Money as a prime venue for collecting original works by emerging and established artists at bargain prices. 4PM

